Your Fixed-Sum Loan Agreement explained

Information For: Mr Anoop koshy Mathew Of
82 Waldegrave
Basildon

SS16 5EQ

Your proposed fixed sum loan agreement to finance your insurance policy premium (the "Fixed Sum Loan Agreement") is regulated by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and by the Consumer Credit Act 1974, (the "Acts").
The Acts give you certain rights and protections. One of the things that Granite Finance Limited, ("Granite") must do before your Fixed Sum Loan Agreement is made, is to give you enough information about your proposed agreement so that you can make an informed choice about whether you want to go ahead.

Pre – contract credit information
In addition to the explanation given in this document, you will be provided with a separate pre - contract credit information document, ("Pre-contract Credit Information"). The Pre – contract Credit Information contains details about your Fixed Sum Loan Agreement, including details of your repayments, the interest rate and cost of credit and information on how you can withdraw from your Fixed Sum Loan Agreement once it is made.

It is important that you read through the Pre-contract Credit Information carefully. You can take away this explanation document and the Pre-contract Credit Information and read them in your own time.

Your Insurance Policy and insurance policy premium funding
You have taken out an insurance policy, using Acorn as your insurance broker. Acorn have told us that you want to spread the cost of the premium for your insurance policy by taking out credit to pay for it instead of paying the premium in full in a single upfront payment. You have decided that it is in your best interests to spread the cost.

Your broker should have explained to you in writing that by taking credit and making monthly repayments, it will be more expensive for you than if you paid the insurance premium upfront in a single sum. This is because Granite will pay your insurance premium to the insurer upfront on your behalf and you will then pay back Granite by making monthly payments. Granite will charge you interest in return for giving you credit. The broker should also have told you that they may earn a commission for introducing you to us (We have explained more about commission below).

Features of the Fixed Sum Loan Agreement that may make the credit unsuitable
The credit under your proposed Fixed Sum Loan Agreement can only be used to pay your insurance policy premium. The credit cannot be used for any other purpose.

What you have to pay to us under the FixedSum Loan Agreement
The Total Amount Payable under the Fixed Sum Loan Agreement is £2237.18. This is made up of an amount of credit of £2143.61 (this is the cost of your insurance premium, less any initial payment you have paid when purchasing the policy, plus interest of £345.62 plus an administration charge of £0. You can also find these details in your Pre-contract Credit Information and in your Fixed Sum Loan Agreement.

You must pay us the Total Amount Payable by making 9 monthly instalments of £224.10 each, starting on 16 October 2025.

What happens if I don't make my payments?
If you miss payments under your Fixed Sum Loan Agreement, it could have serious consequences for you and also result in the cancellation of your insurance policy.

If you do not make your payments on time, you may have to pay us late payment interest and charges. These charges are set out in the Pre-contract Credit Information and in your Fixed Sum Loan Agreement. The interest and charges will increase the total amount that you have to pay under the Fixed Sum Loan Agreement.

If you miss payments, we will send you a default notice under the Consumer Credit Act 1974. If you do not pay us by the date shown in the default notice, Granite can end the Fixed Sum Loan Agreement and demand that you pay immediately in full the outstanding balance of the Total Amount Payable plus any other amounts due under the Fixed Sum Loan Agreement.

Granite can also tell the insurer under your insurance policy that you have not made your payments under the Fixed Sum Loan Agreement. If you do not pay, Granite will contact your insurance broker who will inform the insurer to cancel your insurance policy. Please see clause [4] of the terms and conditions of the Fixed Sum Loan Agreement for details of how Granite can do this. If your insurance policy is cancelled due to your default, then the insurer will pay any refund of the insurance policy premium directly to us. We will use this payment to reduce the amounts you owe us under the Fixed Sum Loan Agreement.

If you do not pay, Granite will take legal proceedings against you. This could result in a County Court judgment being obtained and registered against you. A County Court judgment against you could make it difficult for you to get credit in the future. [If you still fail to pay following judgment, we may start bankruptcy proceedings against you].

If you do not pay any amount due under the Fixed Sum Loan Agreement on time, Granite can report your default to a credit reference agency. This could make getting credit more difficult for you in the future.

If you find yourself in financial difficulties and you think that you will not be able to make your payments under your Fixed Sum Loan Agreement, then please contact us as soon as you can. We may be able to help you in these circumstances.

Your right to withdraw from the Fixed Sum Loan Agreement
Once you have made your Fixed Sum Loan Agreement, you have a right under s.66A Consumer Credit Act 1974 to withdraw from it. You do not have to give us a reason for wanting to withdraw from the Fixed Sum Loan Agreement.

If you want to withdraw you must do so within 14 days beginning on the day after the day on which we tell you that the Fixed Sum Loan Agreement has been made.

If you want to withdraw from this Agreement then you must tell us in writing to us at Customers Services, Granite Finance Limited, 98 Liverpool Road, Formby, Liverpool, L37 6BS or by telephone us on 01704 339500 or emailing us at info@granitefinance.co.uk

Any Questions?
You can ask us about the proposed Fixed Sum Loan Agreement and for further information and explanations by calling us on 01704 339500 or by email to info@granitefinance.co.uk.

Please note carefully:
In assessing your application for credit, we will assess your ability to pay the repayments due. However, before undertaking any credit commitment, it is important that you are satisfied that you can afford the financial commitment. Your assessment should take into account any foreseeable future changes to your financial position. In entering into the Agreement with us, you will confirm to us that you consider that you can afford the monthly payments shown in the section "What you are due to pay to us" (and as shown on the Agreement) out of your normal monthly budget, and that you do not know of any reason why this should change during the term of the Agreement. If you are unsure about this, you should contact us to discuss it.

Roles & Commission
Acorn only offers credit facilities for insurance premium finance from Granite. Acorn does not offer or consider any alternative lenders or financing solutions that might be available in the marketplace from other lenders.
Acorn is linked to Granite because Granite and Acorn are members of the same group of companies.
If you enter into the Fixed Sum Loan Agreement, Acorn may receive a commission from Granite in return for introducing you to Granite. If you ask us, we must tell you the amount of the commission, or the likely amount where the precise amount is not known. Acorn believes that the credit facility which is available from Granite is suitable for your requirements, but you are free to search the market and to obtain credit from another lender.

I have missed a payment; will I be charged a fee?

We do hope you will be able to make your payments on time, but If you do miss a payment then a £25.00 administration fee will be applicable, and this will be added to the arrears amount due.

I have missed a payment, what happens now? Will this affect my insurance?

If for any reason your direct debit is unsuccessful, we will notify you by letter or email. We would always encourage you to contact us at generalenquiries@acorninsure.com as soon as possible if you are experiencing any financial difficulties.

You will then need to take urgent action to ensure the arrears are paid to prevent your insurance policy being cancelled.

We will not try to take a missed payment again by direct debit, so it's important to avoid cancellation of your insurance policy that you get in contact with us, or use the link below to make your payment.

To make things as easy as possible for you there are two ways to do this:

By going on our online payment portal at https://portal.acorninsure.co.uk/

We will always inform you of the timeframe for you to clear your missed payment, but if you do not make a payment before the deadline passes, then unfortunately we will have no alternative than to regrettably cancel your insurance policy.

We will write to you via email or letter to inform you that your finance agreement has been terminated and your insurance policy has been cancelled as a result of the missing payment.

We do sincerely hope that your insurance will not be cancelled due to non-payment of your instalments and therefore request that you please contact our team if you are having any difficulties in making the payment by email at generalenquiries@acorninsure.com.

What will happen if my policy is cancelled?

In the event of cancellation, you may be due a refund from your insurer. The refund relates to the remaining period of insurance that has been unused.

Should there remain a shortfall between the finance agreement settlement figure and the refund due from your insurer then your insurance provider will contact you to collect this amount.

Please be aware that, if a claim has been made resulting in costs to the insurer, then no refund as a result of a cancelled policy would be due. Therefore, any remaining balance on your finance agreement will become payable in full.

Can I pay my arrears using a third parties debit / credit card?
If you wish to settle your arrears using a card other than your own, then we can only accept it via our online payment portal at https://portal.acorninsure.co.uk/ as mentioned above. Please note that only a payment received within the deadline set and for the full arrears balance will keep your finance agreement and your insurance policy active. Anything less will not prevent the cancellation of your cover, therefore if you cannot pay the full arrears, you must contact us at generalenquiries@acorninsure.com before the date has passed to discuss alternative options where possible.
